4th Annual An Investment on Main Street Golf Tournament to be held August 11

Hartford, CT – Capital Preparatory Magnet School will host its 4th annual, An Investment on Main Street fundraising golf tournament on Friday, August 11 to raise money for students’ academic enrichments.

The event will be held at the Keney Golf Course, located in Hartford, Connecticut. It will include a luncheon, silent auction, an 18-hole course, and an award ceremony. Registration begins at 10 a.m. and shot gun tee-off is at 12 p.m.

Organized by Capital Prep golf committee, the golf tournament is part of the annual campaign to raise funds to promote and support all educational programs at Capital Prep.

An Investment on Main Street Golf Tournament has become a fun and important annual event to support CPrep students. Capital Prep principal, Dr. Kitsia Ferguson, said. “With the budget challenges, An Investment on Main Street will help us maintain a high level of programming that is competitive to a private school.” Last year’s tournament raised more than $10,000 to ensure educational opportunities for students attending Capital Prep.

Recognized by U.S. News & World Report, Bronze Distinction of Schools in America and Magnet Schools of America, Merit Award of Distinction, Capital Preparatory Magnet School is a year-round PreK through 12th grade school. It’s a college preparatory environment which is wrapped around a social justice theme. Capital Prep has 100% college admittance for each graduating senior since 2005.
